Search Procedure changed

by Claire Wiczorek
WINONAN Staff Writer

Since the recent resignation of President DuFresne, many people have been wondering who WSU's new president will be.

In November, the State University Board (S.U.B.) adopted an Administrative Procedure which describes the process for the selection of the president.

The first step is writing the Presidential Position Description. The description is open to the Vice Chancellor Emily Hannah who is in charge of the search for a new WSU president Student Senate, University Administration, members of the community, and other select groups. It involves the listing of desirable credentials, specific responsibilities, and desirable professional/personal qualities of the next president.

On Dec. 7th, Dr. Emily Hannah, Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, arrived on campus to begin the selection process. She indicated that the S.U.B. had changed the process and that the Presidential job description forms would not be made available.

Upon request of Robert Wilson, WSU Faculty advisor, ten description forms were received. With the faculty totaling 150 plus, Winona State University Faculty Association Senate informed the University President, Chancellor's office and all S.U.B. members that the "Presidential Selection Process" in existence does not allow for significant input on the part of the faculty, students, and the community. They also recommended that the S.U.B. review the Selection Procedure in order to provide for an active Presidential Selection Committee. Now the Association Senate cannot participate further in the Presidential selection process under the present procedure.

Color T.V. studio active

by Margo Dahl
WINONAN News Editor

WSU can boast of one of the best, if not the best, color television facility in Minnesota at an educational level, according to student producers of programming. This year two color television shows are being broadcasted live at this studio, in Pehls Hall. This is the first live programing that has gone out over cable from the color studio for quite some time.

The shows, "Winona in Sports" and "Roundabout", are produced and directed by students with the help and advice of Dale Pedersen of the Audio Visual Dept.

CTA department to offer new class

Survey of Dramatic Literature, a new four-credit elective for students interested in the theatre, will be offered for the first time during spring quarter.

According to Dr. David Bratt of the Communication and Theatre Arts Department, students in the class will read and discuss plays beginning with the birth of western theatre in Greece twenty-five centuries ago and moving up to the present day. "It may be different than other literature surveys students have had," he says. "For one thing, we will try to discover why it happens that plays written hundreds or even thousands of years ago can continue to affect audiences today. Also, I will treat the plays as pieces of raw material which need actors in order to become finished products. So we will not be too concerned with the plays' values as literature. Instead, we will emphasize that a playscript is a blueprint for a production."

Bratt plans to combine lectures, discussions, films, and in-class performances to help students understand the plays better. Following an introductory lecture on the society each play came from and the theatre it was performed in, each student will write a one-page

Chancellor Hays appoints Winona residents to help

ST. PAUL, MN — State University System Chancellor Garry D. Hays, announced the appointment of thirteen Winona residents to a Citizen's Advisory Committee for the purpose of participating in the evaluation of presidential candidates for Winona State University. The committee includes a cross section of city residents including four Winona State University alumni and the Presidents of St. Mary's and St. Teresa's.

A presidential selection procedure for Winona State University was approved by the State University Board at its November 17 meeting after President Robert DuFresne announced his resignation to return to teaching.

The procedure provides the opportunity for representatives of student, faculty, and administrative groups, as well as citizens from Winona, to interview and submit evaluations of the five to seven semi-final candidates. Interviews of the semi-final candidates are scheduled to begin in mid-April to continue for approximately a two week period.

After receiving evaluations from all groups, Chancellor Hays will recommend three to five candidates to the State University Board. It is expected that the Board will then interview the final candidates and make a selection during the May, 1977 meeting. Dr. Hays indicated his intention that the new president would take office on July 1.

Winona residents who will serve as members of the Citizens Advisory Committee are: Janette Allen, Robert Bone, Adolph Bremer, Paul Brewer, Brother Peter Clifford, Don Cummings, Tim Dalton, Susan Edel, Conway Elton, Alice Keller, Marilyn King, Everett Mueller and Sister Joyce Rowland.

53rd Year Vol. No. 53 No. 11 Winona State University Winona, MN January 19, 1977

Friday on WECC, channel 12. There is also a playback at 7 p.m., Friday, which may be changed to Monday evening.

Coming up on January 28, there will be an interview with Bill Schuler. Schuler will explain, along with slides and diagrams, the proposed plan for Winona's railroad relocation program.

Other possible topics in the future are interviews with the Winona Historical Society and the director of "Tickling Pink", a play bringing in a director from Chicago, in which kids from around the area will take part.

On the production crew of "Roundabout" are Joan Flemming, Mike Martin, Tom Stark, Kevin Tschann, Harold Dircks, Karry Narara and Bill Brockman.

"Roundabout" is a Paraskunk production.

There have been several sport shows from Winona State, but "Winona in Sports", co-produced by Larry Frost and Rod Lindberg and directed by Lindberg, covers sports at the three colleges and two high schools in Winona; rather than just Winona State athletics.

The show is broadcast live, also on WECC, at 6:30 p.m. Mondays with a taped playback at 7:00 p.m. Tuesday.

Their format consists of scores, interviews, highlight films and a new feature called "Paul's Predictions", with Paul Sir, former WSU basketball star.

On the production crew of "Winona in Sports" are Jeanne Niehus, Chuck Grover, Sue Brew, Paul Sir, Barb Van Deirse, Carol Delano and Joyce Fischer.

Frost says, "One of the reasons for the show was to make a production that would create community interest, be as close to professional quality as possible and to prepare for a job in the Mass Communication Field after graduation."

WSU enrollment reported up in all areas

The 1976 fall freshman enrollment at WSU was 919 — a 8.1% increase over fall 1975 when 850 freshmen enrolled. The largest freshman enrollment in the history of the University was in 1969 with 937 students registered.

The total on-campus enrollment for 1976 is 4,185 students or a 4.3% increase over the fall 1975 on-campus enrollment of 4,013. Off-campus enrollment for 1976 totaled 560 students compared to 763 in 1975 or a decrease of 26.6%.

The total enrollment at the University for 1976 is 4,745 or .6 of 1% decrease when compared to the 1975 total of 4776.

The enrollment in the External Studies Program at the University has continued to show a steady increase. This year 229 students are enrolled — a 7% increase over the 1975 total of 214.

paper in which he "poses questions about things in the play he didn't understand. We'll then try to answer those questions when we discuss the play." After that, he adds, two or three students will present a brief scene they have rehearsed. The grade for the course will be based on the one-page papers the student writes and on a take-home essay question which he will have nine weeks to work on. Students interested in taking Survey of Dramatic Literature, CTA 232, may enroll during pre-registration or add the class on drop-add day.

Deadline for scholarships set

ST. PAUL — All students who wish to renew their State Scholarship or Grant-in-Aid awards for the 1977-78 school year must complete and return their application forms by February 1, 1977.

Forms have been mailed to renewal applicants. Forms are also available from financial aid offices at post-secondary institutions or from the Minnesota Higher Education Coordinating Board which administers the programs. Students who have completed at least one year at an eligible community college at the time of transfer to a senior college or university and have not received an award previously may apply for transfer grant-in-aid awards.

In addition, a small number of students who have not received an award, but who show unusual financial difficulties after their first year of post-secondary education will be eligible for grant awards. Students should see their financial aid officer regarding possible eligibility for these and other student aid programs.

Students should complete both the Family Financial Statement and the Minnesota State Scholarship and Grant-in-Aid form and return them to the American College Testing Program in Iowa City, Iowa. Priority in awarding funds will be given to students whose applications are postmarked on or before February 1.

During the current school year, more than $17 million is being awarded to 20,000 students. The amount available for the 1977-78 school year and any changes in the programs will depend on action by the 1977 Legislature.

Applications for History Scholarship now open

Applications for the Thielen Memorial Scholarship are now being taken by the History Department.

The award will be made in the fall, 1977 and is based primarily in scholarship with some attention given to leadership in campus organizations and activities directly related to history. The stipend is $100.

Competition is open to any student who has completed forty credit hours in history courses, or who has a major in paralegal studies, or a major/minor in history. Candidates must also be seniors at the time of the award and have an overall G.P.A. of 3.0 with a history G.P.A. of 3.5. The application deadline is April 15, 1977.

Interested students may obtain application forms from the History Department Office, 212 Minne' Hall. Completed forms should be returned to Dr. Bates, 210 Minne' Hall.

Vet's Corner

by Jim Larmore

Last week this column reflected the common notion that the WSU Veterans Club was basically an organization of single beer drinkers. This is not entirely the case, however, as the WSU Vets Club's activities presently encompass more than drinking arm exercises.

Besides the traditional keggers, parties, and the spring bash, the Vets Club's members are involved in smelt fries, sorority exchanges, and team participation in intramural sports like football, basketball, softball, and broomball.

If you're the least bit interested, why not drop in on the next meeting. It's going to be at Shorty's Bar and Restaurant (which is across the street from the train depot on Mark St.) on Monday, Jan. 24. At 7:30 p.m. the social half-hour begins at the free beer bar, and the meeting is scheduled to follow at 8:00 p.m.

The formation of a married vets group will be the primary topic to be discussed at this meeting, so all of you married WSU vets should definitely attend.

Drop-Add and the Vet

Last week we touched on the new limitations on drop-add practices as set forth in the Veteran Education and Employment Assistance Act of 1976 and how it relates to the size of your monthly check. Because of the requirements of the new law on certification of your eligibility, it is possible for a foul-up in the registrar's of the Vet's Office to cut your credit load or get you dropped entirely from the U.S. Treasury's check list when you drop-add. This problem can occur when the record of your class addition gets separated from that of your class drop.

This happened last quarter when a vet changed all of his classes. The record of the drop showed up in the computer read-out, but the classes he added got lost somewhere. Veterans Office Director Larry Bengtson tried to get in touch with him, but he had moved without telling anyone about it. The vet was accidentally terminated.

You can avoid this kind of thing from falling on your head by stopping in at or calling the Vets Office and notifying them of any changes in your courses or address.

By the way, the Vets Office checks each and every one of your enrollment records several times throughout the quarter. This is done to prevent overpayments, which can really hurt when you have to pay them back out of next quarter's checks, not to harass us.

Tutoring

If you're failing a course, don't give up on it and possible money. Stop into the Vet's Office and they'll be more than happy to counsel you, and if it's applicable, arrange for tutoring, which the VA will pay for.

MCCL BREAKFAST

The Winona Chapter of MCCL (Minnesota Citizens Concerned for Life) invites the public to join its members in an ecumenical prayer breakfast at WSU, Saturday, Jan. 22, from 9:30 to 11 a.m. in the East Dining Room of Kryzsko Commons.

Featured speakers at the breakfast will be Mrs. Helen Brown, Winona, and Mrs. Helen Baughn, Mankato. Both will give first hand experience about lives which have been impaired.

Local officers emphasize the meeting is a significant way to unite many individuals and organizations who show a respect for life by the concern demonstrated in their service.

MCCL recognizes that society

Penney comments on senate

Mitch Penney, Winona State University Student Senate President said in an interview that this year's senate is the best he has ever worked with.

We've got people who really want to do something," Penney declared, "Our freshman senators have great potential and 10 of the 20 senators have had past experience with the senate."

Penney, who graduated from Kiester High School in Kiester, Minnesota, has been at WSU off and on since the fall of 1971 and has been on the senate every year he has been in school.

Penney said that of course there have been problems.

Penney cited the lack of communication between students and the senate as one of the biggest problems the senate has faced all year.

"Every year students will sit around their dorms and bitch, we only have 20 senators and we can't go around and look for the problems," remarked Penney, "a senate looks ineffective if problems are not brought to them."

Penney also pointed out that there are four committees that aren't filled yet, the Publications Committee, Student Housing Committee, Student Health Committee, and the Book Store Committee. A student doesn't have to be a senator to join one of those committees.

"I would like to see WSU get a today places great emphasis on the quality of life, but recognizes that quality must not override our concern for life itself. MCCL fosters and protects society's traditional respect for life by supporting the civil and human rights of the unborn, the defenseless, the aged, the disadvantaged, and all human life.

Tickets for the breakfast are available at Ted Maier Drug and Snyder Drug. Price per ticket is $2.50. Ticket sales continue through Thursday. None will be sold at the door.

WORKSHOP FOR WOMEN

A one-day workshop for women will be held on Feb. 4, 1977 from 8:15-3:30 at the Religious Activities Center, Rochester State Hospital. The workshop, Female Focus, is yearly insurance rate for student keggars and concerts that are held on campus," remarked Penney.

Right now if a student organization wants to throw a keggar on campus, or if a concert is performed at WSU, it costs those people $150 a night for just the insurance alone.

"A controlled liquor bill is being voted on by the Minnesota State Legislature, and this year I think it will pass," said Mitch. (Last year the bill was voted down by only 15 votes.) If it does pass, it will be legal to have liquor on campus next fall.

"There is also a full transfer bill that will be voted on by the State Legislature this year," pointed out Penney. Right now a student won't get their full amount of credits if they transferred to a major university, or private college.

"There's been a lot more work than I expected," said Mitch about his position, "and a lot more work could be put into the senate."

Penney, who is majoring in social science, would like to "get a teaching degree at WSU, and then look for a job at a high school as a teacher and a wrestling coach."

Penney's term as president of the student senate will conclude this spring, a year before he plans to graduate.

"Next fall I'll probably run for senior senator, and I'll try to help the next president as much as possible."

sponsored by the University of Minnesota Rochester Center, the Women's Resource Center, and Women's Institute of Lifelong Learning. It will feature Dr. Dana Lehman-Olson, Director of the Family Consultation Center in Burnsville. Dr. Lehman-Olson will speak about the attitudes and behaviors that prevent women from taking more control over their lives. In addition, she will conduct a session on needs identification, goal setting, and communication techniques. Participants will learn skills of making and carrying out decisions concerning themselves, and will receive information on available resources for women.

The cost of the workshop is $7.50 without lunch or $8.50 with lunch. A brochure is available at the Rochester Center.

For further information or to register, call the University of Minnesota Rochester Center, (507) 228-4584.

STAFF SOUGHT FOR LITERARY MAGAZINE

Students to serve on the staff of Satori, the campus literary and art magazine, are presently being sought. If you are interested in poetry, fiction, art, photography, editing or publishing, see Orval Lund at Minne' 319, or phone him at 457-2949. Students skilled in lettering, photography, and typing are especially needed. University credit for staff work is possible.

CREATIVE WORK SOUGHT FOR PUBLICATION

Poems, stories, photographs, and drawings are presently being sought for publication in the annual spring edition of Satori, the campus literary and art magazine. Students, former students, and faculty are invited to submit their work for possible publication.

A $50 scholarship, the Sylvia S. Bremer Award, will be given this year to the student whose written work is judged by the staff to be the best submitted.

In addition to the creative work listed above, photographs of painting and sculpture are invited. Work should be turned in to Orval Lund, Satori advisor, in Minne' 319. Deadline is March 15.

TRI COLLEGE COALITION

The Tri College Coalition for Justice and Peace will be sponsoring a peace walk protesting the production of the B-1 Bomber, Saturday, Jan. 22.

The walk begins at St. Marys College at 1 p.m. and will go down Gilmore to Vila St. picking up St. Teresa students. The walk will then proceed down Broadway to Huff St. where the WSU coalition joins in. From here the walk will continue down Main St. to the plaza. The march will end here with speakers from each college addressing the students on the B-1 bomber.

Senator-at-Large attempts to resign

by Sher Hakes

Senator-at-large Tim Janikowski asked to resign at Thursday's Student Senate meeting. In his resignation, Janikowski stated that he felt he did not have enough time to devote to Student Senate. His request, however, was not accepted.

Earlier in the week, Secretary Marsha Selsbee resigned because of "conflict with President Penny." The Senate hopes to fill the position with a student who is currently working in work study.

The Senate resolved that cards, chess and other games may not be played in the Student Senate office until after 5:00 p.m. One senator states, "This is probably the most important thing done at the meeting." Vice-President Barb Larson said that she felt this measure is important to keep student-senator lines open.

All Minnesota State Universities are combining efforts and sending two lobbyists to the State Senate. According to Sophomore Senator Keith Troke, the lobbyists will work on three basic areas: student discrimination and student rights, local control of liquor on campus, and full transfer of credits between any Minnesota college or university.

Directors sound off

Enthusiasm abounds these days over at Winona State's PAC. Four energetic, arty characters, Terry Riska, Amy Austin, Steve Peterson and Jim Danneker, are up to their necks in the creation of their one act plays.

Fairly novel to the art of theatrical direction, all four are deeply involved in encouraging their casts towards perfecting their shows. The Winonan collected quotes typical of those made during rehearsals and comments each director has about his particular show.

"Remember: be in the right place at the right time, doing the right thing."

"Nancy, be more suggestive — possibly more syllable duration will work...much better, you're more flirty."

"Probably the biggest problem I've had with the staging of my show in the arena style has been the blocking. There are spots in the show that are very intimate moments, but because the audience surrounds the acting area, I have to make sure I open the actors up."

Terry Riska on Miss Julie.

"Let's cut that last 'POW'."
"Mark, how do you say pretty?"

"'Purty' is definitely not Shakespeare."

"The theme of this play is that touching is important...Don't be afraid to touch."

"There are so many things to consider when directing a show in the round. You must remember, for example, that there are three more sides of audience that see the show. Directing in the round is more difficult and more challenging, but when you see the show work the way you want, it's also more rewarding."

Amy Austin

Amy Austin on Where Have all the Lightning Bugs Gone?

"Good, keep that in, Steve — I like it."

"Renee', try to struggle more."

"Jack, that's a nice tone. Use that tone."

"I feel that the appeal of this show is very apparent because all who see it can greatly identify with at least one of the characters. The situation is one which I'm sure most have experienced."

Steve Peterson on The Private Ear.

"Ross, that scene was just plain dull."

"That's the first time someone reacted to Patrick's line."

"This year the shows are in the Black Room, where I think I prefer working. It's more interesting, easier to direct actions and reactions and a better theatre to see these types of plays in. The actors are catching on quickly to working in the round. I have a large cast and like working with them."

Steve Peterson

Jim Danneker on The Ugly Duckling

Everyone wishing to see the premiere of the four directors work is encouraged to reserve tickets at the box office of Winona State's PAC right away. The plays will run from Jan. 26-29 with both evening and matinee performances. One dollar will hold your seat, and the deposit will be refunded upon presentation of your ID at performances.

The Ritz is a homosexual steam bath. And it doesn't take him long to catch on. From there the film turns into frantic farce. There's no sex or nudity, but the film isn't for everyone's tastes. There is also one performance by Rita Moreno as the untalented entertainer that steals the biggest laughs and eventually the whole show. With F. Murray Abraham and Kaye Ballard.

by Carl Simons
WINONAN Sports Writer

The Winona State University wrestling team capped a very successful weekend by gaining its second win in as many nights with a 32-8 victory over the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse Saturday night.

The Warriors lost only one match with the Indians, while LaCrosse got its other four points by a couple of draws.

Don Simpson got his third pin as a college wrestler by putting Don Thies on his back in 3:17. Bruce Anderson also pinned his man (Bob Sweeny) in 2:53.

Joe Christofferson started things for the Warriors with a 3-2 win over Dan Kahlenbuhl. Rod Hoesley whipped Greg Jentz, who was third in the Wisconsin State University Conference last year, 9-1.

John Nell was trailing 6-5 with 0:18 left in the match when he took down Joe Godfrey and then scored a near fall for an 8-6 decision.

Finally Gary Peterson stopped Rod Gerke 6-2, while Steve-Dummett gave Doug Engel a 6-1 beating.

Tom Danielson and Randy Cephress wrestled to a 1-1 draw and Mike Remick battled Ed Witkiewicz

The Winona State University wrestlers breezed past the University of Minnesota-Duluth 31-6 last Friday in Old Memorial Hall before a fair-sized crowd.

A satisfied Coach Tom Eitter said after the meet that he was not expecting a very tough contest. "We knew we didn't have to really fire up tonight," Eitter admitted the team was looking ahead to facing the stronger UW-LaCrosse squad on Saturday.

The outcome was never much in doubt as the Warriors jumped out to a 14-0 lead after the first three matches. Throughout this season, according to Eitter, the lower three weights (Christofferson, Hoesley and Simpson) have been the "most consistent."

They were very productive against the Bulldogs as the 118-pound Christofferson led off with a 10-4 decision. After Hoesley won on a forfeit, Simpson (134) manhandled his opponent 18-5. Simpson scored seven takedowns en route to his superior decision.

UMD tried to mount a comeback in the 142-pound match. The Warriors' Anderson dropped a very close 5-4 match to Ron Campbell. The Bulldogs cut the WSU lead to 14-6 at 150 pounds when Mark Babcock defeated Buzz Moore 8-2.

But the Warriors doused the brief rally by sweeping the final five matches.

158-pounder Dummett shut out his opponent 5-0 by scoring a takedown, reversal, and one point for riding time.

At 167 pounds Danielson hung on to win 3-2 over UMD's Bob Farden.

After a scoreless first period, Danielson scored an escape but couldn't manage to take down his taller opponent. Danielson took the 1-0 lead into the last period, but Farden quickly escaped to tie it up.

Danielson finally scored a take-down, while Farden's escape in the final seconds proved to be not quite enough.

Nell had an easy time at 177 compared with Danielson. Nell romped to a 14-4 major decision on the strength of five takedowns. He also scored a near fall in the second period.

Pederson won almost as easily 6-1 at 190 pounds. The match was interrupted several times due to head injuries by both wrestlers.

In the finale, heavyweight Remick started fast, was slowed for two periods, and then finished with a flurry to post a 12-2 over Doug Hickey.

Remick scored seven points in the final period on an escape, a takedown, a near fall, and riding time to gain the major decision.

The next home meet for the Warrior grapplers will be Thursday at 7:30 p.m. against St. Cloud State University in NIC action.

Winona then will come right back and face another NIC foe in Old Memorial Hall. The Warriors will go up against Bemidji State University starting at 7:30 p.m.

Gymnasts Split in Triangular

Everyone probably conceded the triangular meet win to Grandview College of Des Moines, IA, but there were a few eyebrows lifted when Winona State University outpointed Gustavus Adolphus last Saturday in a meet held in St. Peter, Minn.

Grandview, one of the top five women's gymnastics schools in the nation, took the three team meet with 124 points, WSU followed with 104 and Gustavus finished with 102.

It was the first team loss for the Warriors, as they split in the meet and now have a 4-1 record for the season.

Winona's Deb Harkness was the only woman to crack the supremacy of Grandview, as she won the uneven parallel bars event with a 7.8 performance.

With the win on the bars, Harkness also scored an 8.45 in vaulting, a 6.35 on the balance beam and a 6.7 in the floor exercise, to establish a new school record in the all-around with 29.3 points.

Monica Phillips also did well for Winona getting a 7.7 in the floor exercise, 6.7 on the beam and totaled an 8.0 in vaulting.

Terry Larson finished with a 7.45 in the floor exercise and Karen Rolseth settled for a 6.75 on the beam.

Grandview took the top three stops in all the events, with the exception of the bars.

WSU was scheduled to meet Mankato State University Tuesday night in New Memorial Hall.

A lack of depth proved to be the knockout punch for the WSU women's swim team when they dropped a 64-56 decision to Mankato State University at the Memorial Hall pool.

All four of the divers, who started the year on the team, are no longer with the squad. Two have dropped out of school, one has transferred and one is out with a back injury.

Because the Warriors had no entries in the diving competition, Mankato garnered all 16 of the points available in that phase of the meet.

One new addition to the team did contribute to the Warriors' cause. Sue Brefka a freshman from Racine, Wis. competed in her first meet and captured a first in the 200-yard freestyle with a time of 2:18.55. She was also second in the 500-yard freestyle with a 6:18.55.

The Warriors started strong with a surprise victory in the 400-yard medley relay. Andria Jerner, Theresa Duffy, Sue Peake and Lori Hasselbring came in with a winning time of 4:45.88.

Head coach John Wanner praised Peak's work as "outstanding...she took five seconds off her best previous time."

Wanner also commented on Hasselbring. "She split in 57.5, which would have been a good enough time to qualify her for the national meet, had she not been participating in a relay event." Hasselbring did triumph in the 100-yard freestyle with a 59.65.

Duffy put in her usual brilliant performance in the sprint events, winning the 50-yard breaststroke (36.51), the 50-yard butterfly (33.50) and the 200-yard breaststroke in 2:42.66. The latter time qualified her for the national meet. This is the second time she has qualified for a national event.

In other heats, the 400-yard freestyle relay team took a first, Peake placed second in the 200-yard individual medley, Hasselbring won the 50-yard freestyle (27.65), Jerner picked up two seconds and Anne Halas placed third twice.

Wanner feels that one more person at any position would improve the team immensely. Yet he was "extremely satisfied with his swimmers. If we continue our improvement, and I believe we will, we will do well in the state meet."

Winona will take part in a quadrangular this Saturday at Bemidji State University. Southwest State University and the College of St. Catherine will also be there. Next home meet will be Jan. 27 against Gustavus Adolphus and College of St. Teresa.

Warrior Cagers Get Two Wins

by Jan Hanson and Joe Bissen
WINONAN Sports Writers

As if one ineligible guard wasn't enough for the Winona State basketball team, the Warriors found themselves without another starting guard when they met the University of Minnesota-Morris Cougars in Memorial Hall last Saturday night.

The Warriors obviously missed the services of Bob Lyons, the not-shooting backcourt man who scored 33 points in a victory over Michigan Tech two nights earlier. Lyons pinched a nerve in his neck in that game and was forced to sit out the Morris contest.

Without Lyons' touch and because of a cold shooting night by the rest of the team, a lackluster Winona State squad was soundly defeated by a 79-55 score.

The Warrior 'five' jumped out to a 4-lead, but lost the lead for good at 6-15 with over 12 minutes left in the first half when Morris' Del Russing laid in a hoop.

In the second half, Morris showed Warrior fans why they are No. 1 in the nation on defense — because of their offense.

Morris ran a slowdown style of basketball, being content to sit on the ball and make the Warriors foul them. 24 times in the second half the Cougars pumped in free throws. That, not coincidentally, proved to be the final margin of victory for M-M in points.

Morris' Paul Seaton took scoring honors in the game with 16, followed by Bob Foss with 15 and Randy Schwelg with 14.

For Winona, Anderson pumped in 12, Bob Smith tallied 12, and Marlon Woods and Dale Howe hit double figures with 10 apiece.

Hix did not feel that the team was developing a losing attitude or a lack of confidence in themselves, even though he could single out no one person for having played a particularly good game.

He praised the efforts of Morris, saying "They were very good at what they did." Hix also summed up the Warrior efforts in a statement that was quite evident to anyone who saw the game. "We just didn't play good basketball." Maybe next time.

A 25-foot basket at the buzzer by Lyons lifted the Warriors to a 69-67 overtime win over University of Wisconsin at Stout in Memorial Hall. This was the second meeting with Stout this season. Stout won the first of the home-and-home series with the Warriors by a one point margin 70-69 back on November 23 on the Bluedevil's home floor.

Lyons, besides scoring the winning basket, also had the game's scoring honors with 20 points. Lyons scored two points with 1:26 remaining in regulation play to send the game into overtime at 61-61.

In overtime Lyons fed Woods with a pass to give the WSU a 63-61 lead. After a Stout basket and a Warrior turnover, Lyons stole the ball and seconds later scored on an assist from Woods. Later Wendell Anderson scored to give the Warriors a four point lead at 67-63.

Tom Diener, a freshman guard for Stout, then hit one of his long jumpers to tie the game at 67-67.

The Warriors stalled and called a timeout with 0:21 remaining on the clock. Coach Hix said that they made no special play but rather run through the options on the offense until an open shot opportunity occurred. With Stout playing tight defense the Warriors were not able to get off a shot until Lyons hit one from the top of the key at the

Women's BB Lose A Pair

The women's basketball team at Winona State University continued to have its problems this past week. The Warriors dropped two more games and extended their losing streak to five games.

Friday night Southwest State University handed the Warriors their latest loss, 64-57. Winona outscored the Mustangs 44-25 in the second half, but the Southwest's 39-13 lead at halftime was too much for the Warriors to overcome.

buzzer.

The Warriors jumped to an early 4-0 lead in the first half and lead most of the first stanza. At 8:50 Stout tied the game at 20-20 and then took the lead the rest of the first half building up a 34-30 halftime lead.

With less than six minutes remaining the Warriors eight points behind Woods scored along with Lyons to narrow the Stout lead to four points with 4:08 remaining.

Anderson hit two free throws at 3:30 to shave the lead to two points. Stout then tried to stall but Lyons broke in front of a pass and went down the floor for two points.

With the score 61-61 with 1:26 left Stout again stalled hoping for the last shot. Wood then blocked Bruce Mueller's shot with two seconds remaining in regulation play.

Lyons had game high with 20 points followed by Woods with 17.

The Warriors made it two in a row when they beat Michigan Tech 79-69 in Houghton, Mich. last Thursday night.

Lyons was the big gun with his 33 points. The 6-2 junior guard canned eleven of 14 field goal attempts and hit a near perfect 11-12 from the free throw line.

Anderson also had a fine shooting night from the floor, tossing in nine of 14 shots for 18 markers. Bob Smith finished in double figures with 10.

WSU, which led 42-36 at the half, finished with a 59.6 percentage from the field with a 31-52 effort. Winona was also 17-23 from the stripe.

Maureen Adams led the WSU attack with 22 points. WSU also outscored Southwest from the floor 24-23, but made only nine free throws to the Mustangs' 18-28.

In the other game played last week, the Warriors lost to the University of Minnesota 67-56. The Gophers built up a 36-25 halftime lead and held onto the eleven-point edge to the end.

Adams again was the high scorer for Winona with 17 markers, while Mary Bartley chipped in with 16.

The junior varsity squad split their two games last week, losing to the U of M 50-41 and then pulling out a hard fought 48-46 win over Southwest.

Study in Spain

Each year during the summer, a program is offered to students to travel and study in Spain.

Last summer 126 students from 35 states departed from Kennedy Airport and flew to Barcelona. The group was lodged in Universidad Laboral de Tarragona, on the Mediterranean coast where they lived and attended classes. The students had their own private beach, tennis and basketball courts. Courses ranged from Elementary Spanish to Literature and Culture.

Sixty students made a four-day tour to London. Once or twice a week a group trip was scheduled to visit such historical places as Tarragona, Monserrat, the interesting city of Barcelona, Valencia, etc.

To complete the excitement of this program, a surprise bonus was given to the students, a free day in Paris, courtesy of Air France. They were lodged in the luxury hotel Meridien, from where it was very easy to tour the city.

Plans are already in progress for the 13th Summer Program in Spain 1977. All persons interested should write to Dr. A. Doreste, Augustana College, Rock Island, Ill. 61201. Space is very limited.
